Notice of Adverse Benefit Determination — Urgent Pre-Service Request

Request number: SYN-UR-20261001-0447

Requested date of service: October 12, 2026

Provider: Hudson Valley Proton Center

We have denied the urgent request for proton beam therapy because we consider it experimental or investigational for your condition.

Denial code UM-EXP-02: experimental or investigational treatment.

This decision is based on the exclusion for experimental or investigational treatment in the Exclusions and Limitations section of your Contract.

You may request the diagnosis code and the treatment code for this request, and what each code means, at no cost.

Your appeal rights

You may file an internal appeal within 180 days after you receive this notice. We will decide a pre-service appeal within 30 days after we receive it.

To start an appeal, write to Utilization Review Appeals, PO Box 0000, Albany, NY 12200. If we uphold this denial, you may ask for an external appeal by an independent reviewer.

For free help, you may contact New York's health insurance consumer assistance program.
